ELECTION OF NEW DIRECTORS ANNOUNCEMENT

We are pleased to announce the elections of Drs. Nicole Hoppman and Peter Hulick to the ABMGG Board of Directors. Their terms will begin January 1, 2021.

Dr. Nicole Hoppman is an associate professor of laboratory medicine and pathology at the Mayo Clinic, where she is co-director of the Genomics Laboratory (combined Clinical Molecular Genetics and Clinical Cytogenetics). She serves as program director of the Laboratory Genetics and Genomics fellowship and as Vice Chair of Education in the Division of Laboratory Genetics and Genomics. Dr. Hoppman received her PhD from the University of Maryland School of Medicine and completed her fellowships in clinical cytogenetics and genomics and clinical molecular genetics and genomics at the Mayo Clinic.

Dr. Peter Hulick currently is the medical director of the Mark R. Neaman Center for Personalized Medicine and division head for the Center for Medical Genetics at NorthShore University Health System. He also has an appointment as clinical assistant professor in the Department of Human Genetics at the University of Chicago Pritzker School of Medicine. Dr. Hulick earned his medical degree from Jefferson Medical College and completed a residency in internal medicine at St. Luke’s Hospital - Mayo Clinic and clinical genetics and genomics at Harvard Medical School. He also earned a master’s degree in medical science from Harvard Medical School in 2007.